

ABSTRACT

MIKHAIL KHOVANOV

In the universal construction of topological theories one builds state spaces for $(n-1)$ -manifolds from invariants assigned to n -manifolds. This approach has been largely ignored in the literature, with few exceptions. We'll explain basic examples of this construction in low dimensions and explore interesting connections to a number of structures.